Prayers

Father, I thank You for being the God who never forgets. Let my season of remembrance begin now, in Jesus' name.

O Lord, as You disturbed King Ahasuerus to remember Mordecai, let my destiny helpers lose sleep until they locate and favor me.

Let the book of remembrance be opened in my favor in the courts of heaven, in Jesus' name.

Father, stir up the hearts of my helpers cause them to remember me, support me, and speak for me.

Where my name has been forgotten, let it now be remembered with honor and urgency, in Jesus' name.

Any veil covering me from the eyes of my divine helpers, tear by fire, in the name of Jesus.

Let the records of my labor, integrity, and faithfulness speak for me in places of influence.

Father, release divine restlessness upon everyone ordained to help me until they obey, in Jesus' name.

I declare that favor surrounds me like a shield men and women are compelled to favor me.

Let every Haman plotting against my destiny be exposed and replaced by divine justice.

O Lord, position me like Mordecai at the right gate, at the right time, for remembrance and promotion.

Let the favor that distinguishes come upon me now, and set me apart for divine elevation.

Father, cause kings, nobles, and people of stature to remember me and open doors for me.

Let every delay in my destiny be overturned by divine remembrance, in the name of Jesus.

Where others are overlooked, I shall be remembered and honored, by the mercy of God.

I decree and declare that I will not be hidden or ignored any longer in Jesus Name.

Every spiritual force suppressing my name in the hearts of my helpers scatter now by fire!

Let divine urgency grip every person who has a role in my lifting.

Just as Joseph was remembered from the prison, I decree I am remembered from obscurity into greatness.

I call forth remembrance, favor, and divine alignment. In the name of Jesus, Amen!

Thank You, Lord, because this is my season of being called, favored, remembered, and lifted!
